Happy New Year!

On behalf of the Marianites of Holy Cross and our staff, I want to wish each of you New Year greetings from Prompt Succor Nursing Home and Rehabilitation Center! We are celebrating and praising God for the many gifts of 2011 – for the new residents who have joined our family and for those who continue to make Prompt Succor their home. In addition, we have been blessed to welcome residents who have come for a short visit in order to take advantage of our rehabilitation program. We are grateful for our comprehensive program which is fully staffed with licensed Physical, Occupation and Speech therapists offering various modes of therapy five days per week. With the gifts and skills of these professionals, we are able to assist with both short and long term rehabilitation needs. As an added benefit, our rehabilitation staff is specially trained in working with seniors to help them reach and maintain their optimum level of performance. In all of our services, we continue to live and promote our mission statement: Inspired by the zeal of our founder, Blessed Basil Moreau, we, Marianites of Holy Cross, along with our staff are committed to providing quality, holistic care, and support services in a Catholic and Christian environment. We share the love and compassion of Jesus Christ with those entrusted to our care, respecting the uniqueness of each individual while promoting and enhancing quality of life. We commit ourselves to foster dignity in this life and to provide an environment that supports a holy and peace-filled journey to eternal life.

I also want to add New Year greetings from C'est la Vie Apartments, an independent living center for Seniors, which grace the front of our property! Attentive to each resident, the Marianites, administration and staff at C'est la Vie provide our residents an affordable living environment in a friendly and secure community. The lovely walking path and comfortable outdoor courtyard are wonderful opportunities for sharing with family and friends as well as for quiet reflection. Endeavoring to enhance the quality of life for each resident, opportunities are offered for companionship and independence in a gracious setting which our residents love to call their home.

As we step into the New Year, let it be for each of us a wake-up call to LIVE in gratitude for the past and in hope for the future. Let it be a moment to choose to live life fuller rather than faster: to open our eyes to the wonder of the changing seasons; to listen to the songs of the birds; to reverence and care for the environment; to pause and share a hug; to appreciate the simplest and most precious gifts of life.

As we begin 2012, we do not know what the year will bring. We only know with certitude that our God was with us in the past and is already going before us into the future. With confidence that we are held in the Lord's loving care, we wish each and every one of you a very Happy and Peace-filled New Year!
